DEFENDANT: Nathan Caleb Brown
CASE NUMBER: 3:18CR00040-001

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall comply with the conditions of Home detention, for a period of five months. The defendant shall be required to wear a location monitoring device and follow location monitoring procedures specified by the probation officer.
2. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment for at least 24 months, details of which will be outlined and supervised by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant successfully completes the program or is deemed by the treatment provider to no longer be in need of treatment. The probation officer is to notify the judge of any violations or problems in regards to defendant's compliance with mental health treatment.
3. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1030e(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by the United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition without the requirement of reasonable suspicion.
4. The defendant may be required to submit to periodic unannounced examinations of the computer system for his computer or computer-related device(s), which may include retrieval and copying of all memory from hardware/software and/or removal of such system for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection. The defendant may be required to have installed on the computer any hardware/software to monitor the defendant's computer use or prevent access to particular materials. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with accurate information about the entire computer system or computer related device(s); all passwords used by the defendant; and his internet service provider; and will abide by all rules of the computer restrictions and monitoring program(s).
